Doug:

Pass along our thanks to the rest of the NOAA team that contributed to the BBA! Let's see what the movie sequel brings.

Hello Jeff,

Thank You...

For what turned out to be our small part, it was a privilege to have been invited. Eventually watching and listening, I learned more than I can possibly express...

Let us know if there is anything else we can assist you with.

I do look forward to watching the rest of the movie...

Jeff, Palmer and Rick,

Let me begin by first asking you to pass this note on to your teams. This effort is about more than just one person, it's about a team that spans coasts, regions and offices working together towards a common purpose – strong, objective science.

I know – and the Administrator knows – of the countless hours and nights that have been spent finalizing the Bristol Bay Watershed assessment, and we owe you a sincere thank you for your hard work, dedication and objectivity. Great work, everyone!

I know that there's a real celebration in the works. I look forward to seeing you there!

Again – thank you.
